ROUTE SKETCH

Paro — Thimphu — Punakha — Paro

Best for: Timed to official Tsechu dates

> LOCAL PLANNER'S NOTE
>
> Tsechu dates and programmes change by year. Expect public settings, early starts and respectful dress; all attendance is based on the confirmed festival calendar.

Day-by-day itinerary

DAY 01

Arrive in Paro

Settle in, meet your guide and review festival etiquette, photography boundaries and the final event programme.

DAY 02

Paro to Thimphu

Travel to the capital with stops at traditional bridges, chortens and a local lunch en route.

DAY 03

Thimphu Craft Traditions

Visit craft studios and, where open, the National Institute for Zorig Chusum to understand Bhutan's thirteen traditional arts.

DAY 04

Tsechu Day One

Attend the day's public ceremonies and masked dances, with context from your guide on the stories and symbols being performed.

DAY 05

Tsechu Day Two

Return for a different programme of dances and time to explore the market atmosphere around the event.

DAY 06

Dochula and Punakha

Leave the capital for the 108 chortens at Dochula and continue into the river valleys of Punakha.

DAY 07

Punakha Dzong and Paro

Visit the dzong from its riverside approach before returning to Paro for a final evening.

DAY 08

Departure

Airport transfer or an optional extra day in Paro, depending on the confirmed festival and flight schedule.
