ROUTE SKETCH

Paro — Punakha — Phobjikha — Paro

Best for: Late autumn to late winter

> LOCAL PLANNER'S NOTE
>
> Black-necked cranes are observed seasonally and from respectful distances. Exact timing varies by year, so the route is confirmed around the migration period.

Day-by-day itinerary

DAY 01

Arrive in Paro

Meet your guide and prepare for a gentle first day in the valley.

DAY 02

Paro to Punakha

Cross Dochula and visit Punakha Dzong, set where the Pho Chhu and Mo Chhu meet.

DAY 03

Into Phobjikha Valley

Drive to the broad glacial valley and visit the crane information centre when it is open.

DAY 04

Cranes and Gangtey Walks

Observe black-necked cranes from designated areas during their season, then walk a gentle section of the Gangtey Nature Trail.

DAY 05

Village and Monastery Day

Explore Gangtey village and monastery surroundings, with a locally paced visit to farms or craft makers where possible.

DAY 06

Return to Paro

Travel west through the mountains, pausing for landscapes, tea and road-side chortens.

DAY 07

Taktsang Viewpoint or Departure

Choose a Tiger's Nest viewpoint walk, a full hike if suitable, or head directly to the airport.
