> LOCAL PLANNER'S NOTE
>
> A demanding high-altitude trek requiring permits, fit trekkers and a flexible weather window. The support crew handles camping logistics and a safe, deliberate pace.

Day-by-day itinerary

DAY
01	Arrive in Paro Meet the trekking team and rest after arrival; hydration and a slow first day set the tone.

DAY 02
Paro Acclimatisation Walk
A guided walk, gear check and discussion of the trek's elevation profile and leave-no-trace approach.

DAY 03
Drive to Shana and Begin
Travel up the Paro Valley and start walking through blue pine forest beside the river.

DAY 04
Trail to Thangthangka
Follow the valley gradually upward; camp routines and pacing are introduced by the support team.

DAY 05
Arrive at Jangothang
Reach the high camp beneath Jomolhari after a steady ascent through yak pasture and alpine terrain.

DAY 06
Acclimatisation Day
Take an optional short hike or rest day at Jangothang, allowing the group to adapt before higher passes.

DAY 07
Cross toward Lingshi
Trek over a high pass when conditions allow, then descend into a broad valley of stone houses and pasture.

DAY 08
Lingshi to Shodu
Continue through remote mountain country with a route selected for the group's condition and the weather.

DAY 09
Shodu to Barshong
Walk through forested sections and camp near the remnants of an old dzong site.

DAY 10
Forest Descent
Descend gradually through rhododendron and conifer forest toward the roadhead.

DAY 11
Return to Thimphu
Rejoin the road, travel to Thimphu and enjoy a restorative hot-stone bath if desired.

DAY 12
Thimphu Culture Day
A relaxed capital day with time for handicrafts, the Buddha Dordenma area or quiet café stops.

DAY 13
Paro Departure
Transfer to Paro for departure, with an extra buffer night added when flight schedules or weather call for it.
